Kevin spoke about the importance of making sure nobody gets left behind or forgotten. Do you know of a situation in school where someone is currently being hurt or left behind? What can you do to make a difference in that person's life? What have you done in the past to assure that no one was left behind or forgotten?

Kevin talked about the bowl of light. Sometimes we have "pebbles" that suffocate our light. Discuss some "pebbles" in your bowl of light. Either from the past, or something you – or someone you are close to – are currently dealing with.

What are some "pebbles" or issues in this school that need to be talked about and dealt with?

Kevin talked about the importance of overcoming obstacles by using them as opportunities to grow stronger. What is an example of an obstacle you had in your life that turned out to be a blessing?

Kevin talked about the importance of being a role model. What are some traits you have that make you a good role model and who else do you look up to as a role model?

Kevin talked about the importance of staying positive when surrounded by negativity. Discuss a time where you were able to stay positive when things appeared negative.

What vision do you have for your life? What do you hope to achieve in the areas of family, education, travel, health and career?

Who is someone you know whose life parallels your vision for your life?

What are some of your favorite "moments of the day" from the past? What "moment of the day" do you intend to enjoy?

Kevin spoke about "finding the funny" in life. Can you think of something that happened to you that started out embarrassing but turned out, later on, to be pretty funny?
