

At his lemonade stand when he was just 8 years old, Kevin Wanzer offered passersby two types of refreshment: a cold cup of lemonade and hilarious, dead-on stand-up renditions of Steve Martin comedy routines. Decades later, the lemonade and Martin routines are gone. The refreshment, however, is still to be had. As a humorist, motivational comedian and keynote speaker, Kevin has been earning rave reviews for over thirty years. Inspiring and entertaining audiences in refreshing ways is all he has ever known. He has been noted nationally as one of the most effective and entertaining speakers for inspiring and empowering audiences, celebrating Ohana and the Spirit of Aloha. Through stories and humor, he helps people reconnect with hidden passions, embrace diversity, and celebrate community through laughter.

Early in his career, Kevin served on the staff of and appeared on Late Night with David Letterman. As a result of Kevin's early work with First Lady Nancy Reagan, President Ronald Reagan appointed him to serve as a delegate to the White House Conference for a Drug Free America, on behalf of which he spoke at the United Nations. To this day, Kevin is still one of the youngest presidential appointees in American history.

Kevin is a member of the National Speaker's Association (NSA) and holds the designation of Certified Speaking Professional (CSP)*.

Kevin is the author of Choose to Love.

* This earned designation is awarded by the NSA and the International Federation of Professional Speakers to recognize demonstrated commitment to the speaking profession through proven speaking experience. Fewer than 12% of the thousands of speaking professionals worldwide hold this designation.
